HOME PROGRAM: Yes/No Questions – Moderately-Complex

Practicing tasks that address goals need to be conducted every day for positive outcomes. Patients performing home programs each day — allow for daily work toward goals.

Instructions: Caregivers are too set a time aside each day, for about 10 minutes at least. If patients have difficulty with the first answer, caregivers should provide visual help with a head nod or head shake.

“Let’s answer some question with ‘yes’ or ‘no.’”

“Yes List
Is marriage typically between two people?
Are camels found in the Middle East?
Do prisoners sometimes show remorse?
Is a snake the same thing as a serpent?
Do you say “Your Highness” to the Queen?
Do “improper” and “indecent” mean the same?
Is a leader cares about self-motivation?
Can a bike ride be 25 miles?
Should state fair rides be inspected for safety?
Is abuse something that should be reported?
Is it important how people behave?
Should people ask for help in a crisis?
Do professors deliver lectures?
Does grotesque mean “distorted?”
Does the government hold elections?
Do buses stop frequently in urban areas?
Are people sometimes nonchalant?
Is it possible to be lazy in the workplace?
Do lawyers sometimes drag out proceedings?
Is a vocabulary something people develop?
Do some people have secret bank accounts?
Do people pay respect at family gatherings?
Is it important to make amends?
Do people sometimes fake a sickness?
Do college students cram during finals week?
Is safe driving important?

“No” List
Do people paint the walls every day?
Is flour you cook with the same as flowers you pick?
Is it necessary to always make a movie reservation?
Is it hard for a seamstress to sew on a button?
Are arguments always winnable?
Are elephants always running?
Is an anniversary something that is beneficial to forget?
Does everyone read labels on products?
Do monsoons only occur in the winter?
Should marketing always be taken as truth?
Does “retaliate” mean to make peace?
Do masquerade masks show a full face?
Does everyone wear sunglasses at night?
Is volunteering paid work?
Is the word “to” an adjective?
Is it common to catch a cold every day?
Is a wedding an everyday event?
Is it necessary to take three showers a day?
Is a curse the same as a blessing?
Is a rainbow something people see every day?
Is it acceptable to argue with a police officer?
Are opponents your allies?
Is it respectful to be sarcastic?
Is seeing a counselor for therapy forbidden?
Do national mid-term elections happen every year?
Are commercial promises to be taken as absolute truth?