

Nice Speech Lady Cursory Write-in Cheat-Sheet for Session Details

Enclosed is a quick and printable template for speech-language pathologists to utilize during active visits, for planning in advance of treatment encounters, and mostly for a quick record-collecting mechanism in the moment of visits.

This method can be utilized when the fast pace of visits necessitates short/cursory comments by the SLP for later review for processing into electronic formats.

This “cheat-sheet” can be a benefit when the high sensory nature or other factors of the clinical flow of visits require alternatives to electronic point-of-service documentation in the moment of the visit.
